Third Sunday of Advent

Year B

17 December 2023

VOCATION VIEW: "As your models in suffering hardships and in patience, friend, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord", (James 5:10). A vocation is responding to the call of God.

Advent

This Sunday is Gaudete or Rejoicing Sunday. In the previous two Sundays we have lit purple candles, representing hope and faith, whereas this Sunday we light the pink candle as rose is a liturgical colour used to signify joy.

Every Christian in some way conceives and gives birth to the Word of God. In the faith, we bring Christ to a world that is waiting. The period of Advent and Christmas is a time for us to ponder more deeply and proclaim to the world and word of God made flesh. In this season, every Christian is called to share, through whatever opportunities the Lord provides, the good news that God has entered our human condition to unite us to him.

Advent Wreath Ceremony

Celebrant: Lord Jesus, your coming was foretold by the prophet Isaiah who cried with joy, for God clothes us in the garments of salvation.

R. Come, Lord Jesus.

Celebrant: Lord Jesus, you come among us now as the light of the world. St Paul urges us to be happy at all times and to pray constantly.

R. Come, Lord Jesus.

Celebrant: Lord Jesus, you sent John the Baptist to be a witness for the light.

R. Come, Lord Jesus.

Thanksgiving Adoration and Mass on New Year Eve

Let us join together for a solemn adoration and benediction on the last day of the year at 10pm followed by thanksgiving Mass at 11pm in the Cathedral on Sunday 31st December. It is a great opportunity to reflect and thank God for the abundant blessings we have received this year, despite having pains and tears at times! We will also begin our new year with the Lord of all. All Welcome!

Blessing of Nativity Sets

This year marks the 800th Anniversary of the Christmas Crèche, a tradition began by St Francis of Assisi in a cave in Greccio, Italy in 1223. We invite and encourage parishioners to have their nativity sets blessed next Friday, 22nd December after the midday Mass, and on Saturday, 23rd December after the 9 am Mass in the Cathedral. "Creche" is an old French term for a crib or manger. It has become a symbol of the true essence of Christmas - the simple yet profound mystery of the Incarnation.

Christmas cards and Nativity Sets still available

Beautiful Christmas cards are still available in our Holy Shop. Budget cards for just $3.50 per packet of 8. If you are looking to buy a nativity set for this Christmas, we have it in our shop. Please visit the Parish Office during office hours. EFTPOS available.

Dear Friends in Christ,

In 2018, people across our vast diocese got together and participated in small groups to listen, reflect, and share responses to the following questions, “What are the signs of hope in our local community? In our Parish? In our School? In our Diocesan Agencies? Where are we called to be “more” in our response to God? How could we grow with support of the wider Diocesan Church?” These questions were taken up at our Diocesan Conference in the same year and set in motion our diocesan journey to the Fifth Plenary Council of Australia. This was our initial synodal journey as a local Church.

On this first Sunday of Advent 2023, at the beginning of a new liturgical year, I wish to formally announce the convocation of the Synod of the Geraldton Diocese. A Diocesan Synod is “an assembly of selected priests and other members of Christ’s faithful of a particular Church which, for the good of the whole diocesan community, assists the diocesan Bishop.” (Canon 460) This is a historic first for our diocese since its foundation in 1898. It will be held from Thursday 22 August to Sunday 25 August 2024. In preparation for our Synod, I have selected the members of the Organizing Committee who will lead the process. Dr Mark Copland, who is the Pastoral Projects Director of the Broome Diocese, is the lead facilitator and he will work closely with Fr Gerard Totañes, VG and with the other members of the Organizing Committee. The Committee will prepare resources that will foster listening and discernment to enable us to engage in spiritual conversations next year during Lent, with the right spirit and right dispositions.

We are undertaking this synodal path of listening and discernment under the guidance and direction of the Holy Spirit. The Church, as a whole, is called to walk the synodal way, totally reliant on the Holy Spirit and with every baptised member contributing their gifts to the entire process. In the words of Pope Francis, “The journey of synodality is the journey that God wants from his Church in the third millennium” Since becoming Bishop, I strive to live by my motto, “Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding” (Proverbs 3:5), in all aspects of my life and ministry. Therefore, I invite you to walk with me and to “Trust in the Lord” as we discern a renewed direction, a way forward for our diocese.

Collectively, as a Catholic community in the Midwest Region, we desire to give a strong witness to the Gospel and foster a more welcoming, compassionate, participatory, missionary, and humble Church. We have a common goal, i.e., to be a Church that is truly alive and brimming with the joy of Jesus Christ as we live out our mission and remain in communion with God and with one another. We seek to “Open the door, and the heart even more so” in response to all the diverse and emergent pastoral challenges of our time, doing it in a responsible and purposeful manner as our Trinitarian God would have us do.

This is an opportune time, a God-given time, a ‘kairos’ moment that will further our growth as Church and strengthen our Eucharistic witness to God’s love. By being faithful and intentional disciples of Christ, our Lord, we are united in a continuing dialogue of love in the spirit of Synodality.

I humbly ask for your prayers and active participation through the days ahead and into the New Year.

St Francis Xavier,

Patron of the Geraldton Diocese, pray for us.

St Mary of the Cross MacKillop, pray for us.

Yours sincerely in Christ,

The Most Rev. Michael H. Morrissey
Bishop of Geraldton

Friday Fast

Thank you to all our supporters for your contributions to this project. There are so many requests for help especially at this time of the year, with Communion appeal, Catholic Mission etc, but please try to remember, that a cup of coffee or a slice of cake that you decide to not have and the money goes to Friday Fast. It all helps! Sr. May Pauline has been so grateful for $1,400 to help with the comfort houses in the highlands in Vietnam where there are so many lepers and very poor village people. In 2024 we will be helping Sr. Christy at St Mary’s Home for Vulnerable Children in New Guinea as she looks after displaced children. God’s Blessings to you all for a Happy and Holy Christmas.

Bishop’s Christmas Communion Appeal

Like Jerusalem’s inhabitants, we too are called to go out to Him, repent of our sins and step out of the laziness and self-indulgence that make our lives a spiritual wasteland. To look inside ourselves and clear a way for the Lord and allow the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and strengthen our commitment. An overflow of any spiritual growth becomes evident in generosity of the material towards those less fortunate. Information on the ways you can donate towards the Christmas Communion Appeal can be found under the tab Outreach on the parish website www.geraldtoncathedral.org “Together we can make a difference”.

For centuries, the Jewish people had treasured the words of prophets like Isaiah. They would have had the promises we see in today's gospel and first reading inscribed on their minds and hearts.

Isaiah, particularly, spoke of the promise of God's decisive response to the suffering of his people and to evil in the world. Through Isaiah, God promised his people that, in the "year of favour from the Lord and the day of vindication", he would "reveal his glory", "feed his flock like a shepherd" and "gather the lambs in his arms". On that day, God would raise a king from the house of David, whom he would anoint to "bring good news to the poor", "bind up hearts that are broken" and "proclaim liberty to captives".

And after years of waiting, John the Baptist was telling his people that the day was arriving.

By quoting Isaiah 40, John casts himself as Isaiah's prophesied "voice crying out in the wilderness". John proclaims that he is the herald for the moment when, as Isaiah describes, "the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together".

The mention of God's glory is a crucial point, as the glory of the Lord was often described in the Old Testament as a pillar of consuming fire that showed God's strength and holiness. This glory would go before them in extraordinary moments

God would dwell among them without barrier or division between them.

So, when John the Baptist explains that he is preparing people to meet "the one who is coming after me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to untie", he is describing this person as the revelation of God's glory, coming with the power and holiness of God himself.

Through Jesus, the glory of God witnessed in the gospels is not the fiery presence of the Old Testament but the radiance of the character of God, the grace and truth about which Moses heard and Isaiah witnessed, in the person and life of Jesus.

In Jesus, who John the Baptist will soon reveal as the "lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world", we can know the God who is so powerful, holy and unlike us that there should be barriers between us. But we know him now as God with us, anointing us with the same Spirit that Isaiah promised would anoint the Messiah.

of salvation and deliverance, such as during the Exodus, or moments of the revelation of God's will, such as the giving of the Law at Sinai. God's presence was so holy and mighty that when it appeared before them, it needed to be concealed from the people of Israel in a pillar of cloud or, later, in the Temple.

The prophets spoke forward to a day when God's glory would be revealed in a way that was no longer concealed but fully disclosed for all to see. John the Baptist's quoting of Isaiah calls to mind this promise of the day when the one true

Angel Tree Project

Angel Tree Project is an endeavour of Prison Fellowship to provide Christmas gifts to the children of prisoners. A child who has a parent (or both parents) in prison is, statistically, 6 times more likely to be incarcerated at some stage themselves. Fathers & mothers inside can feel the separation from their children intensifies at Christmas time as they are unable to purchase a gift for their children. Angel Tree helps maintain the bond between parent and child. It also helps churches connect with these vulnerable, often isolated and stigmatised families in their community.

There are many kids of prisoners in Geraldton, Mullewa, Dongara and Northampton. If you are willing to donate a gift to the kids of Geraldton Prisoners via the Angel Tree Project, go to <https://prisonfellowship.org.au/>

Do not send any donation to the Church in this regard.

Entrance Antiphon

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice.
Indeed, the Lord is near.

First Reading (Isaiah 61:1-2, 10-11)

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The spirit of the Lord has been given to me, for the Lord has anointed me. He has sent me to bring good news to the poor, to bind up hearts that are broken; to proclaim liberty to captives, freedom to those in prison; to proclaim a year of favour from the Lord. 'I exult for joy in the Lord, my soul rejoices in my God, for he has clothed me in the garments of salvation, he has wrapped me in the cloak of integrity, like a bridegroom wearing his wreath, like a bride adorned in her jewels. 'For as the earth makes fresh things grow, as a garden makes seeds spring up, so will the Lord make both integrity and praise spring up in the sight of the nations.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm (Luke 1)

R. My soul rejoices in my God.

My soul glorifies the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God, my Saviour. He looks on his servant in her nothingness; henceforth all ages will call me blessed.

R.

The Almighty works marvels for me. Holy his name! His mercy is from age to age, on those who fear him.

R.

He fills the starving with good things, sends the rich away empty. He protects Israel, his servant, remembering his mercy.

R.

Second Reading (1 Thessalonians 5:16-24)

A reading from the First letter of St Paul to Thessalonians

Be happy at all times; pray constantly; and for all things give thanks to God, because this is what God expects you to do in Christ Jesus. Never try to suppress the Spirit or treat the gift of prophecy with contempt; think before you do anything – hold on to what is good and avoid every form of evil. May the God of peace make you perfect and holy; and may you all be kept safe and blameless, spirit, soul and body, for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. God has called you and he will not fail you.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! ... The Spirit of the Lord is upon me; he sent me to bring Good News to the poor.....Alleluia!

Gospel (John 1:6-8,19-28)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

A man came, sent by God. His name was John. He came as a witness, as a witness to speak for the light, so that everyone might believe through him. He was not the light, only a witness to speak for the light. This is how John appeared as a witness. When the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, 'Who are you?' he not only declared, but he declared quite openly, 'I am not the Christ.' 'Well then,' they asked 'are you Elijah?' 'I am not' he said. 'Are you the Prophet?' He answered, 'No.' So they said to him, 'Who are you? We must take back an answer to those who sent us. What have you to say about yourself?' So John said, 'I am, as Isaiah prophesied: a voice that cries in the wilderness: Make a straight way for the Lord.' Now these men had been sent by the Pharisees, and they put this further question to him, 'Why are you baptising if you are not the Christ, and not Elijah, and not the prophet?' John replied, 'I baptise with water; but there stands among you unknown to you the one who is coming after me; and I am not fit to undo his sandal-strap.' This happened at Bethany, on the far side of the Jordan, where John was baptising.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Say to the faint of heart: Be strong and do not fear. Behold, our God will come, and he will save us.

The Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, (bow for the following line *)

*born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
