Third Sunday of Advent

Year C

15 December 2024

VOCATION VIEW: Have you ever asked: "What ought I do?" Simply, tell the good news to people. Nothing else matters.

Advent

This Sunday is Gaudete or Rejoicing Sunday. In the previous two Sundays we have lit purple candles, representing hope and faith, whereas this Sunday we light the pink candle as rose is a liturgical colour used to signify joy.

Every Christian in some way conceives and gives birth to the Word of God. In the faith, we bring Christ to a world that is waiting. The period of Advent and Christmas is a time for us to ponder more deeply and proclaim to the world and word of God made flesh. In this season, every Christian is called to share, through whatever opportunities the Lord provides, the good news that God has entered our human condition to unite us to him.

"Rejoice the Lord is near!"

Advent Wreath Ceremony

Celebrant: Lord Jesus, your coming was proclaimed by the prophet Zephaniah as the one who will exult over us and renew us by your love.

R. Come, Lord Jesus.

Celebrant: Lord Jesus, you revealed to Paul that if there is anything, we need we just have to ask for it with prayer and thanksgiving.

R. Come, Lord Jesus.

Celebrant: Lord Jesus, as declared by John the Baptist, you will baptise us with the Holy Spirit and fire.

R. Come, Lord Jesus.

Friday Fast

We would like to thank all of you who have contributed to the Friday Fast project in 2024. Your help and support is wonderful and it is amazing how the money in the "little yellow envelopes" can add up and enable four payments a year to a chosen Mission working with young children to be made. This year, we were able to support Sister Christie in New Guinea, who works with vulnerable Children and now we move on to a different group next year.

May Christmas be a joyful time for everyone. Thank you again, and any queries to Yvonne Fahl 0400978284

Donate to the Babies Born Alive Fighting Fund

The Right to Life Association of WA is building a fund to fight for the rights of children born alive after so-called 'failed' abortions. We are appealing to all pro-life Christian people and all pro-life Christian organisations in Australia and internationally to help us with this critical cause. At least one baby is born alive in this way every week in Australia and there are probably significantly more. These children are given no help to breathe, no comfort, no warmth, and no sustenance. They are left to die alone, and their death may take many hours. Many of these children are perfectly healthy and would survive with basic medical help.

They are not given a birth certificate or a death certificate. In fact in most states their life is not acknowledged at all. These little ones are literally thrown out with the trash. We cannot ignore their plight. We cannot ignore the devastating mental health effect this has on their mothers. Help us reach our target of $800,000.

A GoFundMe account is being set up but in the meantime please donate to

The two themes of Sunday's readings are repentance and joy. We do not usually associate these two themes with each other, but they go hand in glove in the kingdom of God.

The prophets of the Old Testament often spoke of what it would mean for God to live with his people. As we read in today's first reading, it would mean the total flowering of love between God and humanity, the permanent establishment of justice and the overthrowing of everything that afflicts and enslaves people. In the words of the prophet Zephaniah, it will be a day for God's people to "shout for joy" and "exult with all your heart".

However, this joyful uniting of God with his people requires our cooperation. A significant theme in the Old Testament is that God will only be actively present in the midst of a just and holy community. This is because to remain close to God is to become like him and for everything else to fall away.

As a result, we have to prepare ourselves to be able to operate in God's presence. For John the Baptist in today's Gospel, the kind of spiritual labour involved in this preparation begins with repentance. Repentance for John starts with giving up those habits of ours where we get an advantage at the afraid to let God have control. When we turn towards God in repentance, we do not find condemnation or judgement but the peace and joy that come from living in lockstep with Christ. This is why the coming of Christ, celebrated at Christmas, is celebrated with such rejoicing. God has come to live among his people and, where there was separation due to sin, God can make the repentant heart both whole and holy.

And our joy is assured because, when we do turn back to God, we are responding to the great love and joy that God has called us with. Zephaniah depicts the moment of God coming to live among his people as God "dancing with shouts of joy". As it says elsewhere in the Gospel of Luke, there is great "joy in heaven over one sinner who repents." Repentance, then, is nothing to fear but is instead the path to true joy. All it takes is listening to God's daily invitation to turn back towards his way of living and start on the journey of a life lived with Christ.

expense of others or where we live in a way contrary to God's love and law. It may mean, as it did for the people in today's Gospel, that we need to change how we use our money, our relationships with others or how we go about our jobs and careers.

However, repentance is not a process that should cause us anxiety. When we are moved to repentance, we know that we do so with God's accompaniment and patience. As Paul says, through prayer, we can invite God into every area of our lives, even those places where we are

Angel Tree Project

Angel Tree Project is an endeavour of Prison Fellowship to provide Christmas gifts to the children of prisoners. A child who has a parent (or both parents) in prison is, statistically, 6 times more likely to be incarcerated at some stage themselves. Fathers & mothers inside can feel the separation from their children intensifies at Christmas time as they are unable to purchase a gift for their children. Angel Tree helps maintain the bond between parent and child. It also helps churches connect with these vulnerable, often isolated and stigmatised families in their community.

There are many kids of prisoners in Geraldton, Mullewa, Dongara and Northampton. If you are willing to donate a gift to the kids of Geraldton Prisoners via the Angel Tree Project, go to <https://prisonfellowship.org.au/>

Or you can give directly into Prison Fellowship's bank account

Entrance Antiphon

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Indeed, the Lord is near.

First Reading (Zephaniah 3:14-18)

A reading from the prophet Zephaniah.

Shout for joy, daughter of Zion, Israel, shout aloud! Rejoice, exult with all your heart, daughter of Jerusalem! The Lord has repealed your sentence; he has driven your enemies away. The Lord, the king of Israel, is in your midst; you have no more evil to fear. When that day comes, word will come to Jerusalem: Zion, have no fear, do not let your hands fall limp. The Lord your God is in your midst, a victorious warrior. He will exult with joy over you, he will renew you by his love; he will dance with shouts of joy for you as on a day of festival.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm (Isaiah 12)

R. Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel.

Truly, God is my salvation, I trust, I shall not fear. For the Lord is my strength, my song, he became my saviour. With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation. R.

Give thanks to the Lord, give praise to his name! Make his mighty deeds known to the peoples! Declare the greatness of his name. R.

Sing a psalm to the Lord for he has done glorious deeds, make them known to all the earth! People of Zion, sing and shout for joy for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel. R.

Second Reading (Philippians 4:4-7)

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians.

I want you to be happy, always happy in the Lord; I repeat, what I want is your happiness. Let your tolerance be evident to everyone: the Lord is very near. There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel (Luke 3:10-18)

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke.

When all the people asked John. 'What must we do?' he answered, 'If anyone has two tunics he must share with the man who has none, and the one with something to eat must do the same.' There were tax collectors too who came for baptism, and these said to him, 'Master, what must we do?' He said to them, 'Exact no more than your rate.' Some soldiers asked him in their turn, 'What about us? What must we do?' He said to them, 'No intimidation! No extortion! Be content with your pay!' A feeling of expectancy had grown among the people, who were beginning to think that John might be the Christ, so John declared before them all, 'I baptise you with water, but someone is coming, someone who is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to undo the strap of his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fan is in his hand to clear his threshing-floor and to gather the wheat into his barn; but the chaff he will burn in a fire that will never go out.' As well as this, there were many other things he said to exhort the people and to announce the Good News to them.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Say to the faint of heart: Be strong and do not fear. Behold, our God will come, and he will save us.

The Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, (bow for the following line *)

*born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
